The best mobile games are seeing growth in the Indian market.

In India like elsewhere, the best mobile games are becoming more and more popular. The global market for mobile gaming will top $33 billion by the end of 2019, predicts a Newzoo report. Indian mobile gaming revenues currently make up less than 2% of all global mobile gaming sales, hence India's percentage of that total is still quite small.

Analysts predict that this figure will rise as more Indians use smartphones and other gaming-capable gadgets. Thus, be sure to check out Hobigames if you're looking for some tough and captivating mobile games to play!
